Pluck of Five Property Owners -A Thirty Thousand Dollar Block. The Salt Laker who left home about

year ago and returned to-day, would find many changes to startle him; but nowhere would the building metamorphis strike him more than on First South street; and of all the changes on First South street and of all the changes on First South street none would seem so radical and pronounced as those in the section around and opposite the Sait Lake theatre. many changes to startle him; but nowhere would seem so ranked an produced as those in the section around and opposite the Salt Lake theatre.

Many of the present generation remem-ber the day when the district opposite the theatre was an extensive stand for haysellers and wood pediars. It seemed a marked change when a small row of fruit shops and salcons took the place of the hay and. But that change, tremendous as it then seemed, is as nothing compared to the change which has resulted from the demotion of the old row of buildings. The BANDSOME BRICK BLOCK, n which the last sounds of the carpenter's hummer are now being heard, is due to the pluck and enterprise of five of the people who owned the shops that were rared to the ground but a few months ago. the penitentiary.

They first went to work and obtained a swenty years lease of the ground from the Brigham. Young estate and then agreed upon a plan for the brick row which has just been completed. The original estimates were for two story buildings, the cost to be $20,000; but before they had progressed.

building is large, airy and roomy; and on his from, windows are to be found the familiar legend "70" which was so well

A phone into the new quarters yes-terday showed that the place had lost none of its old sine popularity; and from the ropedrance within, one might have thought all Steves for eas had been prohibitionists pending the time it was ready to be thrown open to then again; the familiar sign of the Salt Lako Brewing company's beer is a prominent one in Steve's establishment.

He has secured a couple of good tenants, and will beccafter devote his leasare time to enloying life and collecting his rents. It is not improbable that he will take a trip back to the old country as a result of some of his prosperous property and real estate investments. His tenants at present are a fcm of fushionable tailors, who come with a good reputation from Denver, hringing a good force of workers, cutters and fitters and a reputation of doing some handsome work in the Colorado metropolis. GEORGE DUNFORD, the well-known pioneer boot and shoe merchant who has had to vacate his familiar the late receiver of the land office under Cleveland's administration, also has his office on the same floor with the register and receiver. For two years before he was appointed receiver he held the place of chief clerk in the office, and that, with the two years he acted, gave him a thorough acquaintance with the ins and outs of the land business of the territory. He is thus particularly well fitted for the business of land attorney, and all business that comes to his hands will be attended to with accuracy and celerity.

WILKES & TROMPSON, land attorneys, are another firm who are settled near the land office. Here is also the headquarters of the Eddorado auditision, and the business they transact in the land office, and that they do for their well-advertised plut over the river, keeps both members of the firm on the busiest kind of go.

JOSEPH GORLINSKI,

the well known land and mining attorney and engineer, will be located after September I on the second floor, just above the land office, where the sclents may secure the benefits of his long experience. A gentleman interested in the market row and Kimball block properties, said to a Humano reporter yesterday. "I see that the Ness of Thursday objects to our raising the rents in Kimball 1 to 8 and Market row. The taxes on the Market property were increased 50 per cent. In 188, and 33% per cent. this year. The taxes on Kimball block were raised 50 per cent. In '88 and another 16 per cent. this year, so you see a proportionate increase of Fent is necessary to keep up expenses. The rent obtained for these properties is not even a fair rent on the ground, to say nothing of the buildings."

Provo, Aug. 17.—(Special to Tur. Herall, I. Provo, Aug. 17.—(Special to Tur. Herall, I. Phon. S. R. Thurman was arrested at 11.30 o'clock last night at the residence os Mrs. Jane Hodgent, ou a charge of unhawful combination with Miss Victoria Hodgert, the alleged plural wife. He had an examination this afternoon before Commissioner Hill. Several witnesses were examined and Mr. Thurman pleaded not guilty and testified in his own behalf. The case was submitted without argument at 5 p. m., and Mr. Thurman was beld and required to furnish bonds for $1,000, and the witnesses each $300 for their appearance before the grandjury. This case has created a decided sensation in Provo.
Inquiry at the marshal's office in this city proved that nothing was known of the matter here until the news of the arrest was received, showing that the case had been worked up by the deputies at Provo.
While, as stated above, marly everyone was damb-founded with the news, a few Sait Lakers were found last night who had heard it intimated some time ago that the deputies were on Thurman's trail and they were expecting at any time to hear of his arrest. eccived by THE HERALD IS AS follows

BOOMING BOTHWELL'S CANAL.

Spontaneous Jollification in Brigham City The Authorities Interfere.

To the Editor of THE HERALD: A telegram was received here last even ing to the effect that the Bear River canal was a sure "go" this time, and that tweive miles of the most difficult part of the work -mostly rock work-had been awarded to a Kansas City man.

There was not much time for prepara-tion, but a few of our leading and most enterprising citizens sent to the home of enterprising citizens sent to the home of B. M. Young and secured his cannon, a large bonfire was kindled, and soon the quiet of our peaceful town was awakened by the booming of cannon and the lurid light from the immense bonfire. Hon. O. G. Snow proposed three choers and a tiger for Mr. Bothwell, which were given with a will that even Englishmen might enxy.

At about this time of the rejoicings, to the wonder and surprise of everybody, upcame the marshal and Mayor Madsen, who commenced pulling wood off the fire and threatened to arrest threse who would place more fuel on the flames; they also tried to prevent the band from playing. The fire was in a perfectly safe blace—as sufe a place as any in the city.

The chizons, after recovering from their surprise, became indignant, beaued more rubbist on the fire and—this not to their credit, however—gave three ringing har rabs and a jeer to our mayor.

The band refused to ease playing until they had finished, when the affair, about eleven eleok, wound up with a fine piece from our excellent hand.
